

Communities delivering for Future Generations Thursday 6th October 2016

Programme

9:30 – 10:15 Registration and refreshments

10:15 – 10:20 John Rose: Welcome and Introduction; Plan for the day

10:20-10:35 Dr Eurgain Powell, Wellbeing of Future Generations Office – What the WFG Act means for Communities and the role of the WFG Commissioner.

10:35 – 10:55 Anne Jaluzot, Trees Design Action Group (TDAG): Green Planning & Infrastructure ... delivering real value with urban trees

10:55 – 12:00 Lightening Talks: 4 minutes per exhibitor (total 15)

12:00 – 12:25 Networking Break

12:25 – 12:45 Laura Outhart, Transition ReConomy: what is an Economic Blueprint & how they can work to help build local economic resilience, with a focus on previous case studies

12:45 – 13:30pm Choice of Workshops:

WS1 – Charlotte Markey, GreenBlue Urban: A framework for integrating green and blue infrastructure into local areas

WS2 – Anne Jaluzot, TDAG: Looking at the planning for trees in communities with a review of Case Studies

WS3 - Neil Lewis, Sustainable transport: Accelerating the use of electric transport

WS4 – Peter Williams, DTA Wales: Asset Development

WS5 - Laura Outhart /Jay Tompt, Transition ReConomy: How to carry out an Economic Blueprint and how to put this work into action

13:30 – 14:15

Networking Lunch

14:15 – 14:35

Dr Sarah Lloyd-Jones:

'What now? How does the voluntary sector respond to such a rapidly changing landscape?'

A discussion around the need for the sector to develop new ideas and take steps to meet the growing needs of communities and people as Brexit, austerity and local government changes bring new challenges and opportunities

14:35 – 14:50

Chris Blake, Chair of Renew Wales: Renew Wales, Performance and Impact of Renew Wales...

14:50 – 15:35

Repeat of Workshops

15:35 – 16:05

Panel Discussion

John Rose (chair), Chris Blake, Ann Jaluzot, Sarah Lloyd-Jones, Laura Outhart and WFG

16:05 – 16:15

Ben Ferguson Walker – End of Day Rap-up

16:15 – 16:20

John Rose – close

Delegates to stay on for coffee and networking